

Privacy Policy

Moorhouse and Sons Ltd take your privacy very seriously. This page is intended to give you all the information you need to be confident that your personal information will be treated appropriately by us.

Cookies

Our site makes use of cookies to track visitor sessions and link online behaviour to subsequent registration details, if these are offered. No personal information is stored in the cookie that is issued by the site.

If you wish to disable cookies, please refer to your browser's online help.

Collection of Personal Details

If you contact us by completing a form on this web site, your e-mail address and, optionally, other personal information will be stored. This information will only be used to contact you and to help us understand your requirements. If you allow it, we will also use your e-mail address to send you information about our products from time to time. The mailing list is only used to send notices about our products and services. Whenever we write to you using your e-mail address, you always have the option to have your e-mail address permanently removed from the mailing list. Very importantly we undertake never to sell, rent or share this mailing list.

If you wish to update or delete any of the information that we hold about you, or would like to see what information we hold about you, please e-mail us.

Any other personal information you send us, for whatever purpose, is held in the strictest confidence and will not be disclosed to a third party without your express permission, unless legally required.

Feedback

If you have any concerns at all about our privacy policy, or have a dispute about how we are handling your personal data, then please let us know.
